May 22nd, 2004...Hollywood...He's back...sort of...Michael Airington is legendary comedian Paul Lynde, starring in A NIGHT WITH PAUL LYNDE, directed by James Buglewicz and based on Lynde's actual 1976 touring Show. A NIGHT WITH PAUL LYNDE features Lynde's own words, performance pieces and comedic monologues to honestly bring to life the actor's comic genius. The show, brings back the glamour and style of a by-gone era. Airington becomes Lynde for the one-hour show of hilarious jokes, music and downright silliness. A NIGHT WITH PAUL LYNDE will open on Thursday, June 3rd at the M Bar, 1253 Vine Street in Hollywood.

A NIGHT WITH PAUL LYNDE stars writer/producer/ actor, Michael Airington, who has been performing an impression of Lynde in his stand up routine for the past twenty years. This is the first time he actually brings the character to life. Additionally, Peter Marshall, actor and original host of "The Hollywood Squares," is lending his voice to the show as the perfect comedic straight man setting up Paul's famous one-liners that entertained us all for thirteen years. "with musical supervision and additional songs by Mark Savage, special makeup and wig designed by award winning make-up artist Debbie Zoller.
